THE HERALD.

JNO. P. BARRETT, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 9, 1877.

Action of the Democratic Committee.

At a meeting of the Democratic Committee of Ohio county, held on Saturday, the 7th day of April, 1877, the following resolutions were adopted, viz:

Resolved. That a convention be held in Hartford on Monday, the 4th day of June next, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives in the Legislature of Kentucky, and that the same meetings of the voters be held on Saturday the 2nd day of June, at each voting place, for the purpose of appointing delegates to said convention.

Resolved. That we recommend that a convention be held at Rockport on Hartford on the 7th day of June, next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Senate, in this District, and we instruct our delegates to vote for and unite with the Democratic Executive Committee in the choice of Butler and Muhlenberg, for the purpose of having their action and agreement as to the time and place of holding said convention.

SAM K. COX, F. P. MORAN, Secretary, Chairman.

To the Democrats of Ohio County.

Having been called upon and solicited by a large number of Democrats to become a candidate for the Legislature, I, on last Monday, announced my intention to make the race, subject to the action of the Democratic Convention called to meet in the precincts on Saturday, the second day of June, to elect delegates to meet in Hartford on Monday, fourth day of June, to make the nominations.

I was so badly injured from a hurt, received some two or three months ago, that I cannot make a thorough canvass of the county before the convention, not being able to ride horse-back but little yet.

In choosing your standard bearer in the coming contest, I trust you will lay aside all petty prejudices, and be actuated only by a purpose to secure the most capable, consistent and available man to make the race.

If, after due consideration, you determine I am that man, I will feel highly complimented, and will use my best exertions, consistent with fair dealing, to be elected; and, if elected, it shall be my highest ambition to make you as good a representative as I possibly can.

If, however, a majority of you may conclude that some one of the other aspirants are more suitable, better qualified, and can make a more successful race, I say to you in all candor, that it is your duty, to select that one as your standard bearer, and I will cheerfully acquiesce in your decision, and use my influence to elect your choice.

I do not desire the nomination unless it is fairly and honorably accorded me. Whether I shall or not be your choice, I will always hold action of the many friends who have solicited me to make the race in grateful remembrance, and will endeavor to so conduct myself as to retain the confidence thus manifested in me.

Respectfully yours,
JNO. P. BARRETT.

WHILE I am engaged in the legislative canvas, the editorial columns of the HERALD will be under the management and control of Mr. A. H. Cummings, and L. Barrett will attend to the business of the office.

We have heard much said about good for office, but suppose Clark county, Ky., can wear the horns over any part of the world in this line. They now have candidates announced, authoritatively, in the columns of their county paper (the "Democrat") as follows: For County Judge, three; County Attorney, one; Jailor, one; County Clerk, five; Assessor, six; Sheriff, three. Total nineteen. If there is any thing to be gained by starting in time, they will surely gain it.

HON. J. STODDARD JOHNSON has issued a call for the tenth annual convention of the Kentucky Press Association, to meet at Frankfort, June 13. Dr. JOHN E. WOODS, of the "Glasgow Times," will deliver the address, and Major JOHN E. HATCHER, of the "Courier-Journal," will deliver the poem. The representatives of the State press are assured a hospitable reception at Frankfort.

We are going certain, just to get our lives regulated by Dr. Woods, of the "Glasgow Times."

There is a building in Glasgow, Ky., 77 years old and yet it has air about it like a young or new building.

Circuit Clerk Watkins, of Hart county, has been charged with forgery to the tune of $200 or $400. Cause, too free use of whiskey. He had the reputation of being one of the best clerks in the state, till led astray by dissipation.

Notice to Correspondents.

We reserve the right to strike from any communication whatever we may think proper. Persons need not be offended if we do not publish just what they write in the manner written. It frequently happens that for want of space and time, some portion of a letter is left out, and again, for other reasons, we may think it better to cut, slash and destroy. Some may consider this as being the purpose for which they are intended, and others may not be what we want. So our friends need not think we treat them minkingly in anything we do about their matter.

We solicit correspondence and all items of news which, if published or not is intended to offend no one. Write plainly and only on one side of the paper. Do not trouble us with letters, be it known, too publication undesired, but as a means of information to us. Remember that a writer is responsible for what he says.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 9, 1877.

Political.

A large number of the yeomanry of the county were in town Monday last, and the candidates for Senatorial and Legislative promotion had a hearing. Mr. Johnathan Clark, of Muhlenberg, announced himself as a candidate for Senate upon the Independent Greenback platform. He will have a hard "Hill" to get over in getting into the Senate. The editor of this paper announced himself a candidate for the Legislature, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Messrs. Coleman, Bueker, Howe and Dr. Meader, all were present and made speeches. A call on Prof. W. B. Hayward was read, to which the Prof. responded in a very elegant speech, and stated that if such a contingency should arise that the Democrats thought it necessary to nominate him, in order to produce harmony in the ranks, then they were at liberty to do so, and he would be their standard bearer. The audience remained attentive listeners to the end.

Pettengill's Newspaper Directories.

A very useful and interesting volume of 375 pages has just been issued by the old and well-known advertising agency firm of S. M. PETTENGILL & CO., New York, entitled Pettengill's NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY AND ADVERTISERS' Hand-Book for 1877. The preparation of the work has involved much careful labor, information having been sought from every city, town, and village where even the smallest newspaper is published. The leading facts are given respecting 8,574 separate publications, designating the political or other distinctive character, the price of issue, the names of publishers, etc., and showing how many of each edition (daily, weekly, monthly, etc.) are published in each State and Territory in the United States and Province in British America.

The book is elegantly printed from new type, and besides its mine of information, it contains portraits of leading New York journalists, and illustrations of the extensive offices where the publishers transact their business in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston. It is sold at the low price of $1.00 per copy, and is certainly cheap at the price to any business man who does advertising, or to any person who is interested in the extent of the newspaper business in America.

To the Farmers!

I would respectfully announce to the farmers of Ohio county that having procured the Sole Agency at this point for handling Wm. Skene & Co.'s Fertilizer, which from actual experiment by some of our best farmers is found to be the best and cheapest fertilizer in use, yielding a handsome profit on the investment, and which in fact, is just the thing so much needed to make our old lands productive and remunerative to the farmer for his labor. Being assured that largely increased demands for these fertilizers will soon justify heavy shipments which with reduced freights, I can furnish it to the farmers cheaper than any one else in the county. I will ship it to any point desired. Trusting you will favor me with your orders, I am, Very Respect, Yours,

W. L. HOWE.

A Sleep of a Hundred Years.

Some time ago, I. S. Chapman, living near McHenry, Ohio county, cut a hickory tree to make rails, and, in splitting one of the cuts, he found a lizard in a small cavity in a knot. The entrance to the cavity that had once existed had been closed, by the wood growing solidly all round it. The appearances indicated that it had been in its little "little bed" for many years. Mr. Chapman endeavored to tear it out of its easy little home, but it would not wear a cent, so he took it out and laid it on the ground, which frightened it and it struggled hard to run, but it had lost the use of its legs. It was fat and sleek and of a bluish color. It had probably been imbedded there for a hundred years.

A farmer in Caldwell county, who was too stingy to take the Princeton Banner, his own county paper, sold his wheat last week for eighty cents a bushel, while it was worth at the time one dollar and sixty-five cents. Good for him or any other man that is too penurious to take a paper, especially his county paper, and keep informed on all these matters. That fellow don't yet know who's elected Head Free State.

The Breckinridge News, still in its first year, is climbing right along up the hill of prosperity. It now has a larger circulation than two-thirds of the newspapers published in this country, and its list of base & cash subscribers is growing like Jack's bean stalk. May the good people of that locality properly appreciate and sustain it is our wish.
